STRESS THERMOMETER™ # SC911

There is nothing else like the Stress Thermometer™ to test for stress and to measure relaxation. It is timely given all the pressure we face today and timeless in that stress is one of the great challenges in life.

• Too much stress makes you sick. Tense or upsetting thoughts and feelings will make your hands colder in seconds! When you are tense, your hands get cold because blood is kept near your heart, lungs, brain, etc. As you relax, your muscles unwind and blood flows freely to warm your hands and feet. A great sense of peace, contentment and comfort spreads all over. Now you can learn with the Stress Thermometer™ to relax quickly & easily. Lies make hands colder. Muscles tense while lying. A person says one thing but the body tells the true feelings.

• Relax and See your hands Heat up. Hand temperature ranges from 60° F to 99° F. The Stress Thermometer shows exactly what your stress level is down to 0.1 degree. So when worried and nervous = 74.5° F, Calm and easy going = 89.3° F, Dreamy, drifty relaxed = 96.8° F. Each person can measure their personal range of stress and relaxation.

• Stress causes Headaches, Ulcers, Insomnia and more. Just hold the sensor or tape it to a finger tip and you are testing your stress level! Instruction sheet enclosed. Relax and return your blood pressure to normal, sleep deeply, be headache free, no more acid stomach, anger free, etc. This feedback training tool will help you to relax.

This item is for - Gifts, Health and Beauty, Fitness, Sports, Stress Management, Employee Training, Schools, Rehab., Hypnosis, Psychotherapy, Counseling, Massage, Physical Therapy, Wellness, Insomnia, Addiction, Anxiety, Cancer Recovery and more.

Hold the sensor between your fingers for a quick check or tape the sensor to your finger tip. Every 2 seconds a new temperature reading is displayed.
